Re: SkyWest Pilots ALPA Organizing Committee, et al. v. SkyWest Airlines, Inc.,
U.S. District Court, N.D. Cal., Case No. C-07-2688 (CRB)

Dear Counsel,

We understand that the Company is reinstating the schedules of pilots whom we asked to be released for preparation and appearance at the hearing originally scheduled for tomorrow, May 31, 2007. We request that the Company not reinstate the schedules of pilots who were previously released.

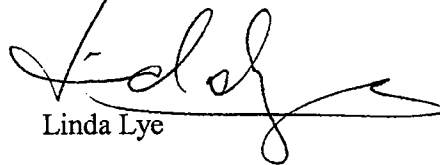

Pursuant to the Court's order, the pilots were released, they made arrangements, and they travelled to San Francisco to prepare for and attend the hearing, and the sudden reinstatement of their schedules is creating logistical difficulties. While every pilot previously released for the hearing will make his best efforts to meet his flights, some pilots may be unable to do so. In particular, Steve Dow traveled out of the area when he was released from reserve, but received a call that he was being reinstated to reserve duty after he had already left the area. He is therefore unable to perform reserve duties today and tomorrow. In addition, and as you are aware, Ms. Ginsburg's and Mr. Berzon's schedules limit their availability next week for witness preparation. As a result, counsel need to meet with witnesses this week to prepare for the preliminary injunction hearing. To avoid undue prejudice to Plaintiffs, neither Tracy Shrier or Andy Bharath should be reinstated to flight or reserve duty for the period they were previously released.

We have advised the pilots whom we identified in our letter to you of May 25, 2007 to speak directly to Jay Oyler or his designee should further issues arise. We will also contact you directly as soon as we become aware of any such issues.

Sincerely,

Linda Lye
